This classic bay-fronted Californian bungalow has been extended and renovated with a meticulous eye for detail. Offering exceptional family accommodation and entertainment areas, indulgent spaces with great period appeal present an unparalleled elegance and finish.

An 806m<sup>2</sup> double block provides significant frontage to the tree-lined street, a rear ROW to a second double garage (or additional entertainment space with fitted kitchen) and landscaped low-maintenance gardens.

Sophisticated interiors grace the generous floorplan with three downstairs living areas (formal sitting, lounge & dining, open-plan living) and an upstairs retreat. Period features unite old and new and include gas open fireplaces, high ceilings with roses and cornices, and leadlight windows and doors. Three period-style bathrooms (main with clawfoot bath) perfectly complement four spacious bedrooms (one downstairs). The main bedroom with
