The bus stops right outside this impeccable, family-sized home, whose corner block commands a sterling position close to St Mark's Primary School and Mercy College. Light-filled and tastefully extended, the single-storey house has polished hardwood flooring throughout and wide windows to make the most of the blissful northerly aspect. Vinyl-clad weatherboards ensure eternal good looks -- you'll never have to paint it! The three double bedrooms (two with BIRs) have picture rails and one has an original Art Deco ceiling. The living area is warmed by a Jindara wood fire, and the dining area has bevelled-glass doors to the pergola deck, creating the perfect indoor-outdoor flow for ease of entertaining. The sleek white kitchen features a Euromaid 900mm gas stove and a corner pantry. Children can play safely in the fully fenced rear garden, while the
