A prime location that boasts the wealth of amenities normally found in the inner city assures a potential packed future for this two bedroom in the Strathmore College zone. Be inspired to add contemporary appeal to this comfortable home and maximise the generous light filled spaces with an update or extension, that will showcase the lofty ceilings, Art Deco details and generous proportions of a bright entrance hall, spacious lounge and the expansive adjoining kitchen with meals, flooded in natural light and opening to a deep north facing garden promising alfresco dining. Double bedrooms share a neat central bathroom, while a separate laundry, gas heater and long side drive to a double tandem garage with workshop provide comfort, convenience and security.
